Posture Realign

GOAL

Teach your body what “correct” feels like.

DRILL · WALL MAPPING

- Head, upper back, hips, and heels all touch the wall.
- Palms face outward, lightly touching the wall.

Aligned — ears, hips, heels stack in one line

Wall mapping in practice

A Tall posture

- Imagine a string lifting the crown of your head upward.
- Grow tall rather than pushing backward into the wall.

B Jaw resting position

- Lips softly closed.
- Tongue resting on the palate.
- Teeth slightly apart.
- Relax the masseters.

C Breathing

- Quiet nasal breathing.
- Let the ribs expand sideways and posteriorly.
- Keep neck and jaw relaxed.

D Hold

Hold 30 sec

Repeat ×5

How to Use This Programme

Simple rhythm, lasting results

- 1 Lymph routine — first thing in the morning, within 30 minutes of waking. Afterwards, drink a glass of room-temperature water.
- 2 Face yoga — anytime of day.
- 3 Posture exercises — two routines; do them on alternate days. They can be done anytime, but preferably in the evening or at night.

Align. Release. Breathe.
